Dear Kevin,

I am writing regarding The Parliamentary Review, a document you may recall receiving, which was introduced by the Prime Minister.

I would like Crisp Vocational Provision to be one of the representatives for 2018/19, sharing your best practice as a learning tool to individuals within the public and private sector. If you do choose to be involved, my co-chairman Lord Blunkett and I will also invite you to parliament as our guest in March 2019, when the document is released, for an evening to celebrate hard work and leadership. Last year, the guest speakers and attendees included Nick Clegg, Frank Lampard, Andrew Neil and Michael Gove.

For the moment, I would be most grateful if you would call my colleague on (020) 7534 5000. He will be able to explain the whole process to you.

I would be grateful for a prompt response.

Kind regards,

E Pickles
