2. Vision and values

Refer to these on the website www.crispvocationalprovision.co.uk

3. Legislation and guidance

This is based on the statutory Special Educational Needs and Disability \(SEND\) Code of Practice and the following legislation:

- Part 3 of the Children and Families Act 2014, which sets out provisions' responsibilities for pupils with SEND
- The Special Educational Needs and Disability Regulations 2014, which set out local authorities' and provisions' responsibilities for education, health and care (EHC) plans, SEN co-ordinators (SENCOs) and the special educational needs (SEN) information report
- The Equality Act 2010 (section 20), which sets out the provision's duties to make reasonable adjustments for pupils with disabilities

4. Inclusion and equal opportunities

At our provision we strive to create an inclusive teaching environment that offers all pupils, no matter their needs and abilities, a broad, balanced and challenging curriculum. We are committed to offering all pupils the chance to thrive and fulfil their aspirations.

We will achieve this by making reasonable adjustments to teaching, the curriculum and the provision environment to make sure that pupils with SEND are included in all aspects of provision life.

5. Definitions

5.1 Special educational needs

A pupil has SEN if they have a learning difficulty or disability that requires special educational provision to be made for them.

They have a learning difficulty or disability if they have:

- A significantly greater difficulty in learning than most others of the same age, or
- A disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream provisions

*Due to the nature of the provision, a significant number of students have difficulty learning and have a range of associated issues, particularly with their social, emotional and mental health needs.

5.2 Disability

Pupils are considered to have a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on their ability to do normal daily activities.

The provision will make reasonable endeavors to make adjustments for pupils with disabilities, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage compared with their peers. Due to the nature and unique provision we offer, we will try and make reasonable adjustment where possible, although some barriers may need additional consideration.

5.3 The 4 areas of need

The needs of pupils with SEND are grouped into 4 broad areas. Pupils can have needs that cut across more than 1 area, and their needs may change over time.

Interventions will be selected that are appropriate for the pupil's particular area(s) of need, at the relevant time.

AREA OF NEED
Communication and interaction	Pupils with needs in this area have difficulty communicating with others. They may have difficulty understanding what is being said to them, have trouble expressing themselves, or do not understand or use the social rules of communication. Pupils who are on the autism spectrum often have needs that fall in this category.
Cognition and learning	Pupils with learning difficulties usually learn at a slower pace than their peers. A wide range of needs are grouped in this area, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Specific learning difficulties, which impact 1 or more specific aspects of learning, such as: dyslexia, dyscalculia and dyspraxia• Moderate learning difficulties

Social, emotional and mental health	These needs may reflect a wide range of underlying difficulties or disorders. Pupils may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mental health difficulties such as anxiety, depression or an eating disorder • Attention deficit disorder, attention deficit hyperactive disorder or attachment disorder • Suffered adverse childhood experiences These needs can manifest in many ways, for example as challenging, disruptive or disturbing behaviour, or by the pupil becoming withdrawn or isolated.
Sensory and/or physical	Pupils with these needs have a disability that hinders them from accessing the educational facilities generally provided. Pupils may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A sensory impairment such as vision impairment, hearing impairment or multi-sensory impairment • A physical impairment These pupils may need ongoing additional support and equipment to access all the opportunities available to their peers, if possible, due to the practical nature of the provision.

6. Roles and responsibilities

6.1 The SENCO

The SENCO at our provision is headteacher, Charlotte Young.

They will:

- Inform any parents that their child may have SEN and then liaise with them about the pupil's needs and any provision made
- Have day-to-day responsibility for the operation of this SEND policy and the co-ordination of specific provision made to support individual pupils with SEN, including those who have EHC plans, with the support of the DSL/Attendance officer and Engagement and Behaviour Lead within the provision.
- Provide professional guidance to colleagues and liaise and work with staff, parents, and other agencies to make sure that pupils with SEN receive appropriate support and high-quality teaching
- Advise on the graduated approach to providing SEN support and differentiated teaching methods appropriate for individual pupils
- Be a point of contact for external agencies, especially the local authority (LA) and its support services, and work with external agencies to ensure that appropriate provision is provided, or referring setting, depending on the individual circumstances.
- When a pupil moves to a different education provider or institution: Make sure that all relevant information about a pupil's SEN and the provision for them are sent to the appropriate authority, provision or institution in a timely manner
- Make sure the provision keeps its records of all pupils with SEND up to date and accurate; this will be included on the vulnerable children's register

- Identify any patterns in the provision's identification of SEN, both within the provision and in comparison with national data for alternative provisions, and use these to reflect on and reinforce the quality of teaching
- Have overall responsibility for, and awareness of, the provision for pupils with SEND, and their progress
- Advise the referring provision or setting when a pupil needs an EHC needs assessment, or when an EHC plan needs an early review
- Monitor to identify any staff who have specific training needs regarding SEN, and incorporate this into the provision's plan for continuous professional development
- Additional information can be found on the SEN information report

6.5 Tutors

Each tutor within the provision is responsible for:

- Planning and providing high-quality teaching that is differentiated to meet pupil needs through a graduated approach
- The progress and development of every pupil in their class during sessions
- Working closely with the engagement team to assess the impact of support and interventions, and consider how they can be linked to classroom learning
- Working with the SENCO to review each pupil's progress and development, and decide on any changes to provision
- Ensuring they follow this SEND policy and the SEN information report
- Communicating with parents regarding the specific needs, learning, progress and barriers in provision

6.6 Parents or carers

Parents or carers should inform the provision if they have any concerns about their child's progress or development.

Parents or carers of a pupil on the SEND register will always be given the opportunity to provide information and express their views about the pupil's SEND and the support provided. They will be invited to participate in discussions and decisions about this support. They will be:

- Invited to termly meetings to review the provision that is in place for their child
- Given the opportunity to share their concerns and, with provision staff, agree their aspirations for the pupil
- Given an termly report on the pupil's progress in the form of a Progress Report.

The provision will take into account the views of the parent or carer in any decisions made about the pupil.

6.7 The pupil

Pupils will always be given the opportunity to provide information and express their views about their SEND and the support provided. They will be invited to participate in discussions and decisions about this support. This might involve the pupil:

- Explaining what their strengths and difficulties are
- Contributing to setting targets or outcomes
- Attending review meetings
- Giving feedback on the effectiveness of interventions that they have in the provision if appropriate.

The pupil's views will be taken into account in making decisions that affect them, where possible.

7. SEN information report

The provision publishes a SEN information report on its website, which sets out how this policy is implemented in the provision.

The information report will be updated annually and as soon as possible after any changes to the information it contains.

8. Our approach to SEND support

8.1 Identifying pupils with SEND and assessing their needs

ILP's, small group sizes, interventions, practical element meets the needs of individuals.

We will assess each pupil's current skills and levels of attainment when they start at the provision. This will build on information from previous settings and Key Stages, where appropriate. We will also consider any evidence that the pupil may have a disability and if so, what reasonable adjustments the provision may need to make.

Tutors will regularly assess the progress of all pupils and identify any whose progress:

- Is significantly slower than that of their peers starting from the same baseline, although this is a significant number of students within the provision due to the nature of the individuals that attend.
- Fails to match or better their previous rate of progress
- Fails to close the attainment gap between them and their peers
- Widens the attainment gap

This may include progress in areas other than attainment, for example, wider development or social needs.

When tutors identify an area where a pupil is making slow progress, they will target the pupil's area of weakness with differentiated, high-quality teaching. If progress does not improve, the teacher will raise the issue with the SENCO to have an initial discussion about whether this lack of progress may be due to a special educational need. Where necessary they will, in consultation with the pupil's parents or carers, consider consulting an external specialist.

Slow progress and low attainment will not automatically mean a pupil is recorded as having SEN.

Potential short-term causes of impact on behaviour or performance will be considered, such as bullying or bereavement. Staff will also take particular care in identifying and assessing SEN for pupils whose first language is not English.

When deciding whether the pupil needs special educational provision, we will start with the desired outcomes, including the expected progress and attainment, and the views and the wishes of the pupil and their parents. We will use this to determine the support that is needed and whether we can provide it by adapting our core offer, or whether something different or additional is needed.

If a pupil is joining the provision, and:

- Their previous setting has already identified that they have SEN
- They are known to external agencies
- They have an education, health and care plan (EHCP)

then the provision will work in a multi-agency way to make sure we get relevant information before the pupil starts at provision, so support can be put in place as early as possible.

8.2 Consulting and involving pupils and parents

The provision will put the pupil and their parents at the heart of all decisions made about the education offer.

When we are aiming to identify whether a pupil needs special education provision, we will have an early discussion with the pupil and their parents. These conversations will make sure that:

- Everyone develops a good understanding of the pupil's areas of strength and difficulty

- › We take into account any concerns the parents have
- › We liaise with referrers regularly for updates
- › Everyone understands the agreed outcomes sought for the child
- › Everyone is clear on what the next steps are

Notes of these early discussions will be added to the pupil's record and given to their parents.

We will formally notify parents if it is decided that a pupil will receive special educational provision.

8.4 Levels of support

Provision-based SEN provision

Pupils receiving SEN provision will be placed on the provision's SEND register. These pupils have needs that can be met by the provision through the graduated approach. Where the pupil's needs cannot be adequately met with in-house expertise, staff will consider involving an external specialist as soon as possible.

Education, health and care (EHC) plan

Pupils who need more support than is available through the provision's provision-based SEN provision may be entitled to an EHC plan. The plan is a legal document that describes the needs of the pupil, the provision that will be put in place, and the outcomes sought.

8.5 Evaluating the effectiveness of SEN provision

We evaluate the effectiveness of provision for pupils with SEN by:

- › Tracking pupils' progress, through our various systems
- › Carrying out the review stage of the graduated approach in every cycle of SEN support
- › Using pupil questionnaires
- › Monitoring by the SENCO
- › Attending annual reviews for pupils with EHC plans, if invited by referrer.
- › Getting feedback from the pupil and their parents
- › Progress reports written termly

9. Expertise and training of staff

Training will regularly be provided to tutors and support staff. The headteacher will continuously monitor to identify any staff who have specific training needs and will incorporate this into the provision's plan for continuous professional development. We have weekly sessions covering a range of subjects and strive to inform everyone with a range of SEND in order to deliver their sessions with the best outcomes.

10. Links with external professional agencies

The provision recognises that it won't be able to meet all the needs of every pupil. Whenever necessary the provision will work with external support services such as:

- Speech and language therapists
- Specialist tutors or support services
- Educational psychologists
- General practitioners or paediatricians
- Child and adolescent mental health services (CAMHS)
- Education welfare officers

- Counselling services
- Social services
- Many of our students receive referrals for additional support through the AP Taskforce

11. Admission and accessibility arrangements

Referrals are made from a range of different settings across the city and county council. All of these have had regular visits to the provision and have a good understanding of our curriculum offer and the students whose needs we are able to meet well.

11.1 Admission arrangements

See additional admissions plan. Contact to be initiated by referring body.

12. Complaints about SEND provision

Where parents have concerns about our provision's SEND provision, they should first raise their concerns informally with the Charlotte Young, Headteacher. We will try to resolve the complaint informally in the first instance. If this does not resolve their concerns, parents are welcome to submit their complaint formally.

For formal complaints, the provisions Complaints Procedure should be followed. This can be found on the website under the 'Policies' section.

13. Monitoring and evaluation arrangements

13.2 Monitoring the policy

This policy will be reviewed by Charlotte Young every year. It will also be updated when any new legislation, requirements or changes in procedure occur during the year.
